GAVROCHE RED ALE

- Region: ST SYLVESTRE BREWERY, FRANCE
- Beer Type: Ale
- Alcohol by Volume: 8.5%

Red ale beer refermented in the bottle. Gavroche is a character in Victor Hugo's 19th century novel entitled "Les Miserables". He is a rebellious yet always generous little urchin living by his wits on the streets of Paris.

Gavroche is a strong, red beer in which the deep malt flavour and brisk hoppiness are very well balanced. The whole is accentuated by fruity flavours derived from a special top-fermenting yeast. This is a rare French example of an ale refermented in the bottle. Gavroche must be served with care, leaving behind the fine yeast sediments.

MORITZ LAGER

Item# 848, 4/6/330ML

MORITZ LAGER

- Region: MORITZ BREWERY, SPAIN
- Beer Type: Lager
- Alcohol by Volume: 5.4%

Moritz contains refreshing hop aromas very pleasant to the palate. The soft malt notes are refined by the balanced yeast during the fermentation process controlled at low temperature.

MORITZ is perfect for the warm Mediterranean summers and should be consumed chilled. However, its aromatic ingredients permit it to be enjoyed at warmer temperatures, an option more common in central European countries.

ST AMBROISE OATMEAL STOUT

- Region: MCAUSLAN BREWERY, CANADA
- Beer Type: Stout
- Alcohol by Volume: 5.0%

At the World Beer Championship in 1994, St-Ambroise Oatmeal Stout received the second highest rating of the over 200 beers in the competition and won one of only nine platinum medals awarded. ST AMBROISE I.P.A

- Region: MCAUSLAN BREWERY, CANADA
- Beer Type: IPA
- Alcohol by Volume: 6.2%

India Pale Ales were brewed in the 19th century with long sea travel in clipper ships across the equator to India in mind. In order to endure these rigours, the beers were high in alcohol and brewed with plenty of hops. The hops provided a spicy bitterness balancing the malt and maintaining the quality of the ale through the natural antibacterial properties of hops. McAuslan has brewed a classic IPA using a blend of pale and specialty malts giving the beer a New World Twist.
