50seju is brewed with quality rice and specially-selected herbs. Notably, 50seju has a quite interesting story. Its name 50seju originally means the mixture of 'Bekseju' and 'Soju' (Korean Vodka). Some consumers started making 1:1 blend of Bekseju and Soju for themselves. They do this because they wanted to drink Bekseju but it cost twice as much as Soju. Hence, it was called '50seju', which means the half of 'Bek (100)'seju.
